Meet our new Reading Ambassadors

We are always very lucky with the enthusiasm that our children show when it comes to all things reading. The Year 5 and 6 children this year have been no exception.

We now have 13 wonderful new Reading Ambassadors who have been trained and have started working in the library; to support children on their reading journey, but also in the development of their love of reading.

One of the ideas they had this year was to publish our own reading newsletter each term to let you know about all of the wonderful reading events going on at our school.

Fantastic Forty Reads

We have new recommended reads for each year group. Each list has a range of books we study in our English lessons, diverse books, classic titles and books by new authors.

You can find these lists on our school website.

How many can you read this year?

Teacher Recommendation

Mrs Caminade has been reading The Final Year by Matt Goodfellow. This is a great book for Year 6's written in verse about a boy named Nate in his final year of Primary School. It's really tough, there's tests to take, while preparing for the change to high school. Nate is ready for it all, knowing his best friend PS is at his side. But then they are placed in separate classes, and Nate's younger brother is taken ill.

Nate's new teacher recognises his passion for reading and writing poetry and shows him how to use this to process what is going on.

Follow this book up with The First Year, about the first year at secondary school.

Reading Ambassador Recommendations

Ezra:

I have been reading Escape Room by Christopher Edge. It is a funny, adventurous story about five kids who go to an escape room and try to make it out alive. Each challenge they face is more thrilling than the last. I would recommend this book to people who love an action-packed novel.
